

Texas College of Traditional Chinese Medicine

4005 Manchaca Road, Austin, TX 78704

512.444.8082 • www.TexasTCM.edu

Accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine, Greenbelt, MD

February 15, 2008

TO: Students, Faculty, and Staff of Texas College of Traditional Chinese Medicine

FROM: Lisa Lin, President of the College

SUBJECT: New Members of the College Team

I am pleased to announce the appointment of three new staff and faculty members. Each has come to us offering a wide variety of skills and knowledge which will benefit our college in many areas.

Sherry Lynn Blakey, Ph.D., M.L.S.

Ph.D., Social Psychology and Industrial/Organizational Psychology, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan.

Master of Legal Studies., University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska

M.A., University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

B.S., Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas

Dr. Blakey has over twenty five years experience in University and Corporate Education as well as Government, Non-Profit, and Business Corporate Research. She has also served as a Consultant and has facilitated various trainings.

For the past year (2007) she has served as a Faculty member in Virginia College's Paralegal Program in Austin, Texas. Prior to this she served for three years as the Legal Program Chair and Psychology Faculty at Austin Business College and as an Assistant Professor at Southwest Texas State University where she taught Health Research in the graduate school as well as a graduate seminar in Program Evaluation and Health Policy Research. Dr. Blakey developed and taught courses in Advanced Multivariate Health Data Analysis, Research Methods in Allied Health Science, Statistics for the Health Sciences, Human Resource Development, Evaluation and Research. Among the other assignments held by Dr. Blakey are a National Institute of Mental Health Post-Doctoral Fellowship at the University of Nebraska (1992-1994) where she researched psycho-legal procedural justice principles in the prevention of perinatal HIV, evaluation of statistical scientific evidence and judicial training centers, and professional ethics. From 1991-1992 she served as a Visiting Faculty Instructor at Trinity University's Psychology Department Dr. Blakey has also been an Instructor for the Department of Environmental Services in Naples, Florida (Collier County Government), Edison Community College in Naples,

Texas College of Traditional Chinese Medicine

4005 Manchaca Road, Austin, TX 78704

512.444.8082 • www.TexasTCM.edu

Accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine, Greenbelt, MD

Florida, and the Chrysler Corporation Training Institute in Highland Park, Michigan. From 1981-1986 she served as a Teaching Assistant at Wayne State University's Psychology Department and College of Life-Long Learning. Prior to this(1976-1977) she served as a Teaching Assistant at the University of Missouri's Psychology Department.

Dr. Blakey holds a Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan. She also holds a Masters In Legal Studies from the Law College and the Graduate School of the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Nebraska, a Master of Arts from the University of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri, and a Bachelor of Science from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, TX.

Allen Lamar McMurrey III, M.A., B.A.

M.A., University of Texas at San Antonio

B.A., University of Houston

Allen L. McMurrey, MA., comes to us from the University of Texas Austin where he is currently pursuing a Doctorate in Educational Policy and Planning. Allen earned his Master of Arts degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Texas San Antonio (2004) and holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Houston (2000).

Allen's professional background involves teaching (K-12) in Houston, Galveston and San Antonio and serving the Educational Service Center: Region XIII as a School Completion/Dropout Specialist. Allen has served as an educational consultant for several local school districts and the Texas Association of School Boards. Throughout his career Allen has earned several teaching awards and has been involved in several major academic publications regarding teacher quality and school improvement.

Anthony A. Caprio, M.D.

Doctor of Medicine, Autonomous University of Guadalajara (UAG) School of Medicine

B.A. Arts and Sciences, Saint Louis University, St. Louis Missouri

Dr. Caprio brings to TCTCM his extensive experience as a patient centered, compassionate medical professional. His assignment here at the TCTCm will be as the Dean of Students. Currently Dr. Caprio is on sabbatical where he participates in seminars, conferences, and presentations on a variety of public health related topics. Before taking his sabbatical he was a doctor of pediatrics in New Jersey (Prystowsky Medical Associates) where he oversaw and managed care of infectious disease and other common childhood illnesses and accidents from 2001-2004. Prior to this he was a Clinical Instructor of Pediatrics for the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry (1976-2004). While there he participated in the education of 50 medical students, overseeing the structure and orientation of medical students to pediatric care and completing evaluations following their rotation. Other positions held by Dr. Caprio include, Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville, NJ, Newark Children's Hospital in Newark, NJ,

Texas College of Traditional Chinese Medicine

4005 Manchaca Road, Austin, TX 78704

512.444.8082 • www.TexasTCM.edu

Accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine, Greenbelt, MD

Martland Hospital Medical Center in Newark, NJ, and St. Joseph's Medical Center in Patterson, NJ.

Dr. Caprio's accomplishments include many awards for both his professional and volunteer services. He brings to our College a wide array of experience and leadership which will contribute to the school's reputation as a center of teaching and learning.